Grünig, Max 2010: "Green Jobs and Prosperity. Can a Greener Economy Lead Us Towards Sustainability?". Schlossplatz3, Spring 2010, No. 8, 15-18.

In this article, Ecologic Institute's Max Grünig provides an overview of different definitions of "green jobs" and describes advantages and problems connected with this concept. He emphasizes that it is not enough to create new green jobs, but that every job has to become more environmentally-friendly.
