

Willem van Rijn

Board Member

Willem van Rijn joined the Ecologic Institute Board as Partner in 2015. Willem brings with him a wealth of experience in international finance and consulting as well as a well-honed background in strategy and risk management. Willem van Rijn is currently the Chief Operating Officer of Greenpeace in the United States. He also remains active as an investor, advisor and board member at various institutions.

□

Willem served as Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Greenpeace International. He was Senior Advisor to the founder and management committee of Capco, an international operations and technology consulting and solutions firm. From 1989 to 2002 he worked as a Managing Partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers Consulting, and its predecessor firm Coopers & Lybrand. Over the course of his rich and varied career, Willem has held various positions at institutions including Bank of America.

Willem van Rijn is based in New York City (United States of America).

Read moreRead less

Source URL: <https://www.ecologic.eu/12342>