Ecologic Institute (2019): EU Climate Policy & EU Reform: Pretty much best friends. Infographic.

In response to Brexit, the EU has embarked on a process of reflection and possibly reform. As a contribution to this process, the Ecologic Institute explores the interlinkages between the process on the Future of the EU and EU climate and energy policies. This infographic presents how the EU's climate policy can help with the EU reform and how the EU reform might improve the EU climate policy.
