

A European Climate Law

Analysis of the European Commission proposal

Publication

Document

Citation

Meyer-Ohlendorf, Nils 2020: A European Climate Law. Analysis of the European Commission proposal. Ecologic Institute: Berlin.

Â

Â

Language

English

Authorship

Dr. Nils Meyer-Ohlendorf

Funding

German Environment Agency (UBA), Germany

Year

2020

Dimension

16 pp.

Project ID

60001

Table of contents

Summary
1 Background

- 2 The European Climate Law – on the road to climate neutrality?
- 2.1 A new long-term target for the EU (Articles 1 and 2)
- 2.2 Interim targets for the EU (Article 2)
- 2.3 Trajectory for achieving climate neutrality (Article 3)
- 2.4 Compliance (Articles 5 and 6)
- 2.5 Policy Consistency (Articles 5 and 6)
- 2.6 Public Participation (Article 8)
- 3 Which elements are missing?
- 3.1 Independent scientific advisory body
- 3.2 Quantified EU emission budget until 2050
- 3.3 Specifying sinks, priority for restoring natural sinks
- 3.4 Review the 2050 target and the EU Long-Term Strategy

Keywords

Climate
Environmental Law – Ecologic Legal
EU

Climate law, climate rules, climate policy, EU, European Union, Carbon neutral, climate neutral, renewable energies, energy efficiency, transformation, decarbonisation, Paris Agreement, European Parliament, European Commission, legislation, legal acts, legal text, CO2 footprint, climate target, governance regulation, energy union
Europe
assessment, analysis

Source URL: <https://www.ecologic.eu/17402>