

Deyana Spasova

MSc MA (Tricontinental Master in Global Studies)
BA Hons (Journalism)

International Fellow

Team

Research & Policy Analysis

Topics

Climate
Energy

Deyana Spasova is an International Fellow at the Ecologic Institute with a thematic focus on climate change mitigation, clean energy and renewable energy communities. Deyana Spasova is a native Bulgarian speaker, is fluent in English and has advanced knowledge of German.

In her work at Ecologic Institute, Deyana Spasova focuses on indicators for the progress of EU Member States towards climate neutrality as well as the Conference on the Future of Europe and Europe's post-COVID-19 recovery.

□

Prior to this role, she worked as a Student Research Assistant for the Energy & Climate department of Öko-Institut in Freiburg (Germany), where she contributed to the "Renewable Space Heating under the Revised Renewable Energy Directive" (European Commission, DG ENER) project. During that time, she also conducted research for her master's thesis on the topic of "Support for Renewable Energy Communities under the revised EU Renewable Energy Directive: a case study analysis of approaches in Germany and Bulgaria". She has also gained experience as an intern for the Representation of the European Commission in Sofia (Bulgaria).

Deyana Spasova completed her Tricontinental Master in Global Studies in Germany, Taiwan and Mexico. She also holds a bachelor's degree in Journalism, which she studied in Scotland and the USA.

Read moreRead less

Source URL: <https://www.ecologic.eu/17720>