Schwab, Sophie 2021: the Conference on the Future of Europe. Lessons from France, Ireland and the United Kingdom. Berlin: Ecologic Institute.

On 9 May 2021, the Conference on the Future of Europe (CFE) will start. The CFE will provide a new space for citizens to engage in the debate on the future of the EU. A new Ecologic report examines the experience with citizens' assemblies on climate policies in France, Ireland and the United Kingdom, and draws lessons for the CFE.
