Respecting Planetary Boundaries

EU POLICY PATHWAYS TO DYNAMIX 2050 VISION

[1]

This infographic was developed within the project "DYNAMIC policy MIXes for Absolute Decoupling of Environmental Impact of EU Resource Use from Economic Growth (DYNAMIX)". It communicates 5 key targets regarding resource use and visualizes that there are different pathways to an economy that respects planetary boundaries. Different versions of the infographic were developed for use in online and print media, as well as a version with reduced text for PowerPoint presentations.
