Lisa-Marie Hancke

Ecological Volunteer (FÖJ)

Lisa-Marie Hancke is working as an Ecological Volunteer (FÖJ) at Ecologic Institute from September 2018 to August 2019. Her activities center on supporting the Events Team in the preparation, implementation and follow-up of national, European and international events on environmental issues. She works in German and English.

Lisa-Marie Hancke successfully completed her training as a media technology assistant for geographic visualization at the Ernst-Litfass-Schule in Berlin in 2018. She decided to work as an FÖJ volunteer at Ecologic Institute to gain insight into the opportunities in the field of ecology and environmental policy.

In her spare time, Lisa-Marie Hancke is politically active as a volunteer at a children's and youth center, where she is responsible for various organizational and pedagogical tasks.
