Johannes Seilnacht

Assistant Event Manager

Johannes Seilnacht started his apprenticeship as an event manager at Ecologic Institute in September 2018. He supports the Events Team in preparation and implementation, but also in the follow-up of national, European and international events on environmental issues. He works in German and English.

Before starting his apprenticeship at the Events Team, Johannes Seilnacht studied political science at the University of Jena (Germany) and worked as an intern in the Events Team of the European Academy Berlin [1].
