Landwirtschaft, aber nachhaltig - Einer muss immer anfangen

2ND EPISODE OF "KNOWLEDGE FOR FUTURE - THE ENVIRONMENT PODCAST"

Sustainable agriculture - Someone has to take the first step

"Sustainable Agriculture - Someone has to take the first step":
Welcome to the second episode of the environment-focused podcast series "Knowledge for Future", produced by Ecologic Institute and detector.fm.

Today organic products are all the rage, but long before the big supermarket chains added organic milk and co. to their product range, people in Germany were dedicated to biological, sustainable agriculture.
