Sabrina Hundegger

Ref. iur.

European Lawyer

Legal Trainee

Sabrina Hundegger spent the last station of her legal clerkship at Ecologic Institute's Legal Team [1]. At Ecologic Legal, Sabrina Hundegger worked on German, European and International environmental law, in particular on questions of successful implementation of European requirements on the national level. She works in German and English and is proficient in Italian.

Prior to joining Ecologic Institute, Sabrina Hundegger worked as a research assistant at the law firm Gleiss Lutz and at the chair for state law, public international law and international commercial law with Prof. Dr. Eckhard Pache.

Sabrina Hundegger studied law in Würzburg (Germany) with a focus on European and International Legal and Commercial Transactions. She did her complementary studies on European law at the University of Würzburg. She completed her legal clerkship at the district court of Würzburg with further stages at the administrative court, the district administration and public prosecution.
