Ecologic Institute: Science and Policy for a Sustainable World

25
years
of excellence
in
research,
policy
analysis
education,
communication
and stakeholder
engagement

In our brochure "Ecologic Institute: Science and Policy for a Sustainable World", we introduce Ecologic Institute as a transdisciplinary research organization. Readers gain an overview of our capabilities in research, policy analysis, education, communication and stakeholder events. Suitable for clients, partners, funders and the interested public, the brochure describes the many ways that Ecologic Institute brings new insights into environmental policy.

Our new brochure, revised for the occasion of our 25th anniversary, is available for download.
