The Future of European Energy Supply - Reflections on the 'Magic Triangle' of Security, Economy, and Climate Protection

TimeLoc

29 October 2006

Berlin

Germany

R. Andreas Kraemer [1]

The seminar on "Energy and Climate Policy for the Future" served to identify the regulatory framework and conditions of energy supply and energy policy that the industry requires, and to discuss the interaction between energy policy and climate protection. R. Andreas Kraemer of Ecologic Institute was invited to set the tone for the seminar with an opening dinner lecture, and to add reflections on energy supply security and the security policy implications of energy policy in the European neighbour states.
