Sebastian Ossio

Diplom-Wirtschaftsinformatiker (FH)
Web Developer

Sebastian Ossio worked as a Project Manager for the Online Dissemination of Projects at Ecologic Institute. He mainly focused on international projects. He did most of the conception, programming, configuration, and management of the project-related websites. Since his start at Ecologic he has brought online more than a dozen websites like Forum Fischeschutz [1], Measuring Progress [2], the Information portal climate-policy-infohub [3] and the Refresh [4] Webseite. He was brought up speaking Spanish and German and works mostly in English.

Sebastian Ossio has been working with Software since he was 18. Between 2004 and 2008 he was the Software Lead and Scrum Master of Regis24 GmbH. In 2009 he worked as a freelancer and volunteer in La Paz, Bolivia and Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania. In Dar Es Salaam, he worked for the "Art in Tanzania [5]" NGO as a project manager.

After having finished school in Bolivia, he completed his Diplom in Wirtschaftsinformatik (a mix between business administration and computer science) at the FHTW in Berlin and is now pursuing an MBA in Sustainability Management [6] while working full time at Ecologic Institute.
