Stefanie Wurm

MA (Geography and Southeast Asian Studies)
Senior Manager

Stefanie Wurm worked as Senior Manager in Ecologic Institute's Orga Team, and was responsible for the communication of research results. Among other responsibilities, she coordinated the preparation of publications and proofreading. She works in German and English, and can also speak both Vietnamese and Spanish.

Stefanie Wurm supported the Ecologic Institute's researchers in publishing research results in brochures (e.g. Ecologic Briefs [1]) and other publications [2]. Besides revising texts in German, she was in charge of the Ecologic Institute's press contact services.

Stefanie Wurm has worked for the Ecologic Institute since 2003. She started in the Events Team [3], working as an expert on the design, preparation, and coordination of international environmental events, communicating the Institute's research results. From September 2008 to October 2010, Stefanie Wurm led the Events Team.

Before joining the Ecologic Institute, Stefanie Wurm worked as assistant to the head of the Berlin Office of WWF Germany [4]. Before that, she supported the German Organisation for Technical Cooperation (GTZ, now GIZ [5]) and worked as seminar assistant for the ask!-agentur [6]. While living for two years in Vietnam, Stefanie Wurm was committed to the German Development Service (DED [7]) and worked as a freelancer for the WWF Indochina Programme [8].

Stefanie Wurm earned her degree in both Geography and Southeast Asian Studies at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin (Germany) and studied Vietnamese in Hanoi.
