

International Workshop: New ISO guidance for managing water with ISO 14001

4 June 2019
Federal Ministry for the Environment
Stresemannstraße 128-130, 10117 Berlin
Room 1.001

Moderation: R. Andreas Kraemer, Ecologic Institute, Berlin

Agenda

9:30 – 10:00	Registration and Coffee
10:00	Opening and Welcome Annette Schmidt-Räntsch, Division G I 5 Environment and Economy, Sustainable Financial Policy, Federal Ministry of the Environment
10:10	Introduction and Tour de Table Moderator
10:30	Presentation of ISO 14002, incl. Questions and Answers Christoph Töpfer, Convenor of ISO/TC 207/SC 1/WG 11, German Environment Agency
10:50	Keynotes <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The need for sustainable water management in a global and local context Prof. Dr. Ing. Robert Holländer, University of Leipzig2. Corporate and Investor responses to rising water challenges Andreas Svennefjord, CDP Europe3. ISO and Water – which standards already exist? José Alcorta, ISO Central Secretariat
11:45	Lunchbreak

12:45	Presentation of Draft NWIP ISO 14002-2 Christoph Töpfer, Convenor of ISO/TC 207/SC 1/WG 11, German Environment Agency
13:00	Discussion of Scope and Conceptual Approach for ISO 14002-2 Moderator and participants
14:00	Coffee Break
14:15	Discussion of possible technical content Moderator and participants
15:00	Out of the box: Brainstorming other environmental topic areas for ISO 14002 Moderator and participants
15:30 – 15:45	Summary and closing Moderator